

JULY 2010 NEWSLETTER

Ok my friends, I shall start this letter off with a very puzzling question. This question is not for the light of heart. I can only warn you again, if you can't handle something this hardcore, skip past this introduction. Ok here it is. Who would win in a fight between two full grown gorillas and one grizzly bear? Forward all answers to this question to 505-320-9508.

July 7-8 Mission Trip Campout! - Let's review last years experience at this campout. Delicious food, Zach killed a chipmunk by throwing a rock at it, and the fifth and sixth grade team won yet another competition in the sand volleyball tournament. As you can see, this trip is pretty awesome so I highly suggest you show up at the Living Room at 2:30 pm on the 7th to join us on yet another quest. Meet with your mission team to figure out who is bringing what. We will return from our crusade at noon on Thursday.

July 9-10 Girls Trip!!! - Omg! Like Totally! Girls Trip!!!! Shopping and girl time! Ok I'm done. You ladies will be leaving on Friday at 3:00 pm. Its gonna cost you $22 for the trip plus whatever you have to pay for meals and shopping. You will be spending the night at a hotel and then hitting the mall to shop till you drop. For more details and to sign up for this trip talk to Smelinda ( Mel ).

July 11 Parents and Student Mission Trip Meeting - Duh Duh Duhhh!!!! That is the awful sound of a mission trip parents meeting! The parents of kids who are going on mission trip must meet in the Celebration Center at 5:00 pm to talk about who knows what? I think they plan the best ways to torture us whilst on mission trip. Actually I'm just kidding. No worries mates!

July 13 Student Leader Outing! - All you student leaders out there, join Melinda and I at 4:00 pm on our adventure to learn more about Jesus and ourselves. It will be legendary!

July 14 Mission Trip Training - Nothing funny about this one. This is the crunch time training that everyone who is going on mission trip needs to show up to. I mean EVERYONE! We will be meeting from 3:30 pm - 5:30 pm. See ya there!

Thus concludes another letter in the saga of newsletters! Hope y'all enjoyed it!
p.s. I was practicing my Texas talk for when I move back down there at the end of this month. Oh, and Stay Classy!!!!
