

Words. What are words? Words are just...words. You better not forget these words though, because they will guide you to a June filled with crazy awesome fun! Well here we are again at a crossroads. It feels like just yesterday that I was a wee little lad that was nervous about going on his first Student Life Camp trip. I can't believe we have made it this far together, one step at a time. Wow, I just realized that combining two graduation speeches does not work well. Enough of this jibber jabber. Here is the month de June!

On a serious note I would like to let you know that Mission Trip Trainings will be held every Wednesday this month except on the 9th. That means I better see all of your shining faces at training on the 2nd, 16th, 23rd, and 30th!

June 6th-11th : STUDENT LIFE!!!- So Student Life Camp will pretty much be one of the coolest things ever to happen to this planet we call Earth. Ok, maybe not THAT cool, but it is going to be a blast. What's better than learning about Jesus while having tons of fun in beautiful Estes Park, Colorado? NOTHING! We even have Todd Agnew as our worship leader, and take it from a guy that has worshiped with him before, he is LEGIT! Don't forget to meet at the Butler side parking lot at 10:45 am to load up, and remember to have your forms signed, notarized, and ready to go!

Sunday June 20th : S.N.O.- You might be thinking to yourself, "what is S.N.O.?" Well I have the answer right here! It is an acronym that stands for Sinister Night Owls. Beware the Owls! :0 Just kidding. It really stands for Sunday Night Out, and this time around we will be playing some good ole' ultimate football! This activity will happen right after youth that night at Jaycee Park and will end when one of the old timers hurts themselves. Knock on wood!

Saturday June 26th : eXchange- So I guess this isn't really that important, but the eXchange leaders are letting this homeless, haggard looking guy come preach at this service. This homeless dude happens to be me! (although I am really not homeless thanks to the ever kind Church family). So either you can take the blue pill and sit at home that night, or you can take the red pill and come watch me preach my first sermon!

Sunday June 27th : S.N.O.- The Owls strike again! Just kidding. I have something I'd like to say. One Sunday night I felt very alone and considered myself to be a one man wolf pack. Then we had S.N.O. that night and then I added another wolf to my wolf pack. That makes 2 wolves in my wolf pack. Then I heard about another S.N.O. on the 27th and I thought "could it be? Could I be adding more wolves to my wolf pack?" Yes it can be! We will be watching a movie in the Celebration Center. Bring 2 dolla for pizza and whatnot.
